

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A method to implement policy-based network traffic management includes receiving data pertaining to a network device at a network traffic manager, the first data being received out-of-band of network traffic. Second data is extracted from the network traffic. A network traffic management policy is implemented at the network traffic manager utilizing the first and second data.

85710.P052